NOTES AND PRECIS.

Dy.No.4407. S.N. 1

1 Please see Item 57 of the Enactments in force in the Civil and Military Station of Bangalore ~~is~~ the Prisoners' Act.

2 Only sections 29 and 30 of the Prisoners Act, 1900 (III of 1900) have been applied to the Civil and Military Station, Bangalore. Section 29 deals with the case of removal of persons sentenced by Courts to British Indian or Mysore State jails. Section 30 deals with the case of Lunatic prisoners. The body warrant issued by the Munsiff-Magistrate has been issued probably under the provisions contained in Part IX of the ~~Prisons~~ Prisoners' Act, which has not been applied to the Station. The Magistrate says that no extradition proceedings are necessary as the Cantonment Magistrate is recognised as a British Indian Magistrate. No doubt the Cantonment Magistrate is a Magistrate under the Government of India; but the Civil and Military Station of Bangalore is not part of British India and the laws in force in British India have no force in the Station unless they are specifically applied under the Indian Foreign Jurisdiction Order in Council. The procedure referred to in part IX of the ~~Prisons~~ Prisoners' Act cannot be adopted by the Civil and Military Station Courts. The only provision under which the prisoner in question can be brought before the Station Courts is by the Hon'ble the Resident issuing an extradition warrant under section 7 of the Indian Extradition Act, 1903 (XV of 1903)

(B) S.N.3 F.32-21

3 In similar circumstances in the year 1926, the position was explained to the Presidency Magistrate, Madras, and the extradition warrant which he had returned, was retransmitted to him for favour of compliance.

SN 7&8 F 32-21 (B)

4 If approved, the Munsiff-Magistrate, Civil and Military Station, Bangalore, may be asked to conduct an inquiry to enable the Hon'ble the Resident to see whether a prima facie case has been made out to ask for the extradition of the accused person. Please see in this connection S.N.37 in F.No. 32-1921.
